Sportsmanship

The IEA was established to provide competitive and educational opportunities through equestrian athletics. Good horsemanship and honorable participation are priorities at every event. It is the responsibility of all attendees to foster a spirit of belongingness, an atmosphere of community enjoyment, and a mutual respect for all participants. All attendees must commit to the following oath:

OATH:

In representation of the participants at this event, I promise to respect and abide by the governing rules of the Interscholastic Equestrian Association and to represent myself, my team, and this association in the spirit of good horsemanship and honorable competition.

Wendy Willis is the Owner and Director of College Equestrian Consulting (CEC) which works exclusively with high school equestrians in pursuit of equestrian opportunities in college. Wendy's commitment to assisting prospective student athletes was born out of the bewilderment she felt when her daughter decided that she wanted to continue to ride in college. Recognizing that other families were experiencing the same challenges navigating the college equestrian land- she was determined to develop a better avenue. Wendy holds a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science from UCLA. She and her French Bulldog Bellamy live in Bryan, TX.

Lisa Ecklund is an equestrian performance coach and a hunter/jumper clinician and trainer with over 35 years of experience as a private trainer and member of the United States Equestrian Federation (USEF), an assistant professor in equine science and management, an Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHSA) coach and an IEA event manager. Her personal journey and passion for mindfulness and self-awareness has lead her to develop a unique style of teaching and training. She blends traditional training techniques with mindfulness training and performance coaching.

The United States Pony Clubs (USPC), Inc is the largest equestrian educational organization in the world. The cornerstones of our foundation are education, safety, sportsmanship, stewardship and FUN. Members learn riding and the care of horses through mounted habits and values instilled through horsemanship will apply to every part of a member's life. Coaches - join us for a discussion on how to make your coaching job easier with lesson plans and curriculum. Riders - come for a fun interactive study guide for the IEA Holy Innocents' Horsemanship Test. Welcome all to learn about the numerous opportunities that Pony Club offers!

Bernie Traurig is a true horseman recognized not only for his riding achievements, but also for his gifts as a teacher and clinician. His talent for instruction goes back to his roots where he was fortunate enough to have been educated by some of the very best Master Instructors this country and the world have to offer. After amassing over 50 years worth of training and riding techniques and experiences with thousands of horses, Bernie is driven to give back to the sport that has given him so much fulfillment and success. See more at: <http://www.equestriancoach.com/>.

Diane Leshner is the President of Equisure, Inc. located in Aurora, Colorado, a specialty equine insurance agency. Diane has been with Equisure for 19 years and loves the advantages of working with the variety of customers the horse industry provides. Her customers include large equestrian associations such as the IEA, novice equestrians and all horse-lovers in between. Equisure specializes in providing and creating programs to meet the needs of trainers, clubs, horse shows and equine associations. Bring your questions and come discuss real scenarios that equestrians face. For questions about insurance, Diane can be reached at diane@equisure-inc.com.

Robert 'Bob' Cacchione is the award-winning executive director and founder of the Intercollegiate Horse Shows Association (IHSA). In 1967, as a freshman at Fairleigh-Dickinson University, he launched its egalitarian mission of making riding available to all college students no matter their skill or economic level. This year, IHSA will present the 44th edition of their National Championships, bringing together more than 450 of the top college riders and best two dozen teams to compete for such individual and team titles as the USEF Cacchione Cup, whose winners include USEF four-time Equestrian of the Year, Bezie Madden (Southern Seminary) and US Olympic Show Jumping Gold medalist Peter Wylde (Tufts). Without Bob Cacchione's inaugural help of the IEA, the organization would not be where it is today. For more information on the IHSA visit <http://www.ihsainc.com>.

Patti Colbert is a "hands-on" promoter for the horse industry. Patti held the position of Senior Director of the American Quarter Horse Association's Foundation raising millions of dollars for scholarship and equine research. In 2006, Patti's company managed the Mustang Heritage Foundation where she created and launched the Extreme Mustang Makeover events leading to the adoption of more than 5,000 wild horses. ## PRACTICAL LEARNING

Our on-campus equestrian center with its practical-learning classroom, along with our small class sizes and faculty dedicated to the value of the liberal arts, means that students in our equine-based programs receive an individualized, career-oriented education that will prepare them to succeed.

Choose from three majors that relate to equestrian studies:

- » Equestrian Studies, with concentrations in:
  - Equine Management
  - Equestrian Management
- » Equine-Facilitated Therapeutics
- » Equine Journalism

Wilson also offers a number of equestrian opportunities, including a competitive, IHSA hunt seat team and an IDA dressage team, as well as several equestrian clubs. And our on-campus horse boarding option is a bonus.
